

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Adult Library Catalogue

The Catalogue consists of author or editor, title, and subject interfiled. Some books may have more than one subject heading. Books are filed on the shelves under the first three letters of the author or editor's last name and, in the case of more than one author or editor, they are filed under the first listed. They also each have a blue dot with the three letters on the back. Some books may be listed under other headings, e.g., Bible or Hymn Book.

Author entries list the author or editor of the book, title, publisher, place of publication, date, and other subject headings .

Title entries list the title of the book and author.

Subject entries (in italics) list the subject, title, and author.

Items that have an asterisk * beside them are housed either in the Dykeman Room or the Sanctuary
